THE biennial election of officers of the Congressional Club took place yesterday at the club house in New Hampshire avenue. Mrs. Alice Pomeroy, wife of Senator Pomeroy of Ohio, was elected president, succeeding Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, wife of Senator Fletcher of Florida, who has held that office for the last two years. The five new vice presidents are Mrs. Joseph W. Byrnes, wife of Congressman Byrnes of Tennessee; Mrs. George W. Fairchild, wife of Congressman Fairchild of New York; Mrs. Albert B. Cummins, wife of Senator Cummins of Iowa; Mrs. Robert N. Page, wife of Congressman Page of North Carolina; and Mrs. Edward T. Taylor, wife of Congressman Taylor of Colorado. Mrs. Henry G. Danforth, wife of Congressman Danforth of New York, was elected recording secretary; Mrs. J. J. Russell, wife of Congressman Russell of Missouri, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. James F. Byrnes, wife of Congressman Byrnes of South Carolina, treasurer. The new officers will take their places March 4. The nine women elected represent all states of New York contributing two officers to the board of government.

Mrs. Pomeroy was opposed by Mrs. Everis A. Hayes, wife of Congressman Hayes of California. Both have a large following in the club.

Mrs. Hannah Matthews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stoddard Matthews, was married at 4 o'clock last night to Lieut. Edwin Pearson Parker, U. S. A., at Christ Church, Georgetown. The Rev. James Blake performed the ceremony in the presence of a large company. Easter lilies, great bunches of white roses and a profusion of palms, Southern smilax, and ferns decorated the church.
